

PLAN BENEFIT - Mrs. Roderick H. McAllister (left), chairperson for "Fashions for Flowers," discusses plans for the annual fund-raiser for the Garden Club of the Sandhills with the club's president, Mrs. Thomas J. Howe.-(Photo by Carolyn Low).

Garden Club Announces 'Flowers For Fashions'

Submitted

The Garden Club of the Sandhills will again team up with Razook's to present the annual fall benefit, "Fashions for Flowers." The Grand Ballroom of the Country Club of North Carolina will be the venue and Wednesday, Oct. 23, will be the day.

As this is the only fund-raiser for the Garden Club of the Sandhills each year, wide support by area residents is encouraged. All monies earned will enable the club to continue present programs and allow new projects to be developed.

Proceeds from previous shows have supported the following on-going projects:

Given Memorial Library, Wyatt Open Door Day Care Center, Sandhills Children's Center, yearly scholarships to Sandhills Community College for the study of horticulture, Weymouth Memorial Garden and Christmas House at Weymouth Center.

Mrs. Roderick H. McAllister, general chairperson, has chosen her committee:

Invitations and programs, Jeanne M. Sales; "Angels" and raffle, Mrs. Donnell G. Adams; decorations, Mrs. John E. Spriggs; hostesses, Mrs. Braddock Greene; menu, Mrs. Mac Verhyden; reservations, Mrs. William Durward P. Grady; tables, Mrs. Edward H. Stringer; fashion coordinator, Mrs. Grover B. Simpson; publicity, Mrs. Alfred L. Low Jr.; advisor, Mrs. Adams and, ex officio, Mrs. Thomas J. Howe, president of the Garden Club of the Sandhills.